

Anita's Memoir Example

Dear Housewives,

You know that I have had a rough time with Paul lately with all of the craziness going on. I endlessly tried, all of our marriage, to do what's best for my husband but his decisions made it hard to do so. A few months ago, I wrote him detailed instructions on how to act with Kroner, and I did not even receive a thank you. I know I should be supportive, because of all he has done for me, but it was difficult since he was never around. I just felt like I did not know what person I was living with at the time, and now that people have been calling him a saboteur, I do not know what to believe. I really do care for him, but I can not love someone that doesn't have a high ranked job and believe ridiculous ideas about society.

About my affair rumors, they are true, I have been seeing Shepherd lately and I really do love him. Many of you probably think I am a terrible person for cheating on my husband, but I swear I am the innocent one. He put me through a lot and I just can not stand by a person that disobeys the rules of our government and society. My relationship with Paul was fading a long time ago and his actions are inexcusable. After his stunt at the Meadows it became clear that I can not be with him anymore. I feel like I did the right thing and was truly the best wife I could have been to that man. It was unfair what he did to me and I am glad I am moving on.

I really could not care less what becomes of him and his saboteur ways. Our society relies on these machines and it is crazy to think that we should get rid of them. I really hope you guys understand and not judge my actions due to the fact that you have not been in my situation. You ladies all having loving, caring husbands that have the heads on straight and are not saboteurs. Thank you for taking the time to hear my story.

-Ms. Anita Proteus