

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 19th, 2010

Contact: Julia Whitehead

Kurt Vonnegut Memorial Library

317.652.1954

julia@vonnegutlibrary.org

Kurt Vonnegut Memorial Library and Katz and Korin, PC
Announce a Public Open House to Preview the Development of the Vonnegut Library

INDIANAPOLIS -- The Kurt Vonnegut Memorial Library and Katz & Korin, P.C. announced a public open house “sneak peek” of the Vonnegut Library’s development on November 12th from 6-8 p.m. at the Emelie Building, 340 N. Senate Ave., Indianapolis. There will be several exhibits ready for public viewing, including an art gallery featuring Vonnegut art, a reading room with books donated by Half-Price Books, a gift shop, and several exhibits in a museum area that focus on Vonnegut’s life and works as well as the importance of the Vonnegut family in the Indianapolis community since their arrival from Germany in the 1800s.

The Vonnegut Library was established to champion the literary, artistic, and cultural contributions of the late writer, artist, and Indiana native Kurt Vonnegut, Jr. “This will be the public’s first opportunity to see what we are doing with the space so generously donated to us by Katz and Korin, PC in the Emelie Building. We are so fortunate to be able to house our collection and share our exhibits and programs with the public from such a beautiful base of operations,” said Julia Whitehead, executive director and founder of the Vonnegut Library. We hope our Indianapolis neighbors will like what they see, and we are always mindful of the fact that this library will be an important stop for visitors coming to our city.”